Sally Motyer to be new CEO of First Catering South Africa

Bassersdorf – on 9th February 2009, Ms. Sally Motyer will become the new CEO of First Catering South Africa with catering units in Johannesburg, Cape Town, Durban and Bloemfontein.

Sally Motyer is a South African Citizen. She has a long experience in the international airline catering industry in countries like Ghana, Nigeria, Australia and South Africa in different managerial positions. Earlier in her career, Sally has been working for our group during seven years in Accra and Lagos.

We thank Dino Rakitzis, who acted as CEO during the last few months. He will hand over the business to Sally and will continue to act as company lawyer.
